The Average Father is Afraid His Daughter Will Not Marry The Right Man and the average mother is afraid her daughter will not "catch on" at all. But just give the girl a little time and when she sees how economically we can furnish that indispensable part of all well ordered homes,

THE KITCHEN,

Including one of our justly celebrated

BUCK'S STOVES

she will "have ideas of her own." She will come to the conclusion that they can well afford a home of their own even if her future husband doesn't have much money, because BUCK'S is so economical as to make a little money go a long way. We are Beaumont agents for Buck's Stoves and Ranges.

BOERS HOLDING THEIR OWN.
Special to The Daily Enterprise.
Boer Camp, Smalldeal, March 30.—General Jan. Prinsloo, a former Free State commandant, has been arrested, charged with high treason. He is supposed to have given information and deserted to the enemy. The latest news from Brandfort is to the effect that the federal troops are more than holding their own. There have only been nine casualties to date.

THE BOERS WILL FORCE THE FIGHTING.

Special to The Daily Enterprise.
Pretoria, April 3.—The main Boer army has advanced sixty miles southward from Kronstadt and are now at Smaldeal. Another big force is at Paardeberg on Roberts' left, while Oliver's command of Boers, who attacked Broadwood, are on the right, with 6000 Boers on the Vaal river. Their threatening attitude is probably responsible for General Methuen's hurried recall from Grimaland.

BOER RECRUITS.

Lorenzo Marquez, April 3.—A German steamer has arrived with 267 passengers, mostly recruits for the Transvaal.

SITUATION STRAINED IN KENTUCKY.

Special to The Daily Enterprise.
Frankfort, Ky., April 3.—Anticipating an attempt to seize the state building, in event of the affirmation of Judge Field's decision by the court of appeals, the republicans today removed the galling gun from the state house yard to the executive building, where they might be used with effect from the windows. This movement is taken to indicate that the republicans do not intend to evacuate if the court of appeals decides against Taylor. Taylor is expected to come back to the capitol soon. A large quantity of provisions arrived today by boat from Cincinnati and was taken to the arsenal. The republicans are preparing for a siege of State House square and expect more soldiers. It is generally understood that should the court of appeals decide in favor of Beckham he will immediately demand possession of the executive office, backing up his demand with force.

A SWITCHMAN INJURED.

About noon today a switchman named Ezerack was seriously if not fatally injured while at work in the Kay See yards. He was attempting to make a coupling and while stepping between the cars when he was about to make the second attempt he was caught between the bumpers and had his left arm and side badly crushed. Yardmaster Will Redick brought the injured man down town on a flat car, where he was put in Stone's ambulance and taken to the hospital. Ezerack has been employed for some time as a fireman on the Kay See and has only been switching a few days. His father lives at Mystic, Ia.

AGGIE LOCATED.

Special to The Daily Enterprise.
San Francisco, April 3.—Aginaldo is reported to be in Singapore. The papers there publish interviews with him in which he declares he is going back to Manila.

BOERS GETTING AGGRESSIVE.

Special to The Daily Enterprise.
London, April 3.—The Boers are taking the aggressive and are now closing in upon General Roberts. They are already upon his flank and front and are apparently forcing the fighting before he is ready to start.

BOERS HOLD THEIR POSITIONS.

Special to The Daily Enterprise.
Bushmanskop, April 3.—The Boers are still occupying the Waterworks, which the British shelled yesterday, the Boers replying.

THE CENSOR AT WORK.

Special to The Daily Enterprise.
London, April 3.—Press messages from the seat of war today are greatly curtailed and mutilated, indicating developments at the front.

ROBERTS' SUCCESSOR ELECTED.

Special to The Daily Enterprise.
Salt Lake City, April 3.—Ex-Judge William King, a democrat, was elected representative to congress yesterday over James T. Hammond, republican, by probably 2900 majority. King is a Mormon, but not a polygamist.

FRENCH FINDS FIGHTING.

Special to The Daily Enterprise.
Bloemfontein, April 3.—General French has engaged a strong Boer command from Ladybrand, which ambushed Broadwood Saturday and almost decimated them. It is generally believed that the guns and wagons the Boers captured are almost certain to be recaptured.

THE QUEEN ON IRISH SOIL.

Special to The Daily Enterprise.
Dublin, April 3.—The queen is on Irish soil today. The journey by train from Windsor to Holyhead last night was comparatively without incident, as was the voyage of the royal yacht across the channel. She will not disembark until morning.

AN OVATION TO THE QUEEN.

Special to The Daily Enterprise.
Holyhead, April 3.—The queen met an ovation on her arrival at 9 o'clock this morning. In response to an address on behalf of the common council, she said: Practical aid and gracious sympathy for those who have or are likely to suffer the consequences of the present war, which has been shown by all classes of my subjects, has been a great consolation to me during the period through which we are passing. I join your prayer that peace may soon be restored and the blessings of Heaven long be continued to my empire.
